DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1,4 and 15: resolving the bet with respect to c) is unclear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 1-30 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Netley (5,868,618) in view of Ornstein (5,570,885)

Netley teaches a method of playing a poker game comprising the steps of wagering for each game (col.3, lines 13-14), playing at least two games (abstract), allowed to play a second game if winning the first game (col.2, lines 65-67), awards for winning both hands (col.3, lines 27-31), and bonus (col.3, lines 39).

Netley teaches all limitations of these claims except that it does not teach paying for a parlay or consecutive winnings on hands.

Ornstein also teaches a wagering game allowing a player to win multiple bets (abstract) and enhanced payoffs for consecutive winning (col.5, line 61-64).

Ornstein teaches wagering and enhanced paying on consecutive winnings on hands (col.5, lines 61-64). In order to make the game attractive for players, it would have been obvious to allow a commonly known method step of using the parlay bet. One of ordinary skill in art at the time the invention was made would have provided enhanced payoff by allowing parlay bets.

Note to applicant: Claims 1,4 and 15 have been interpreted for their broadest meaning. Also an opportunity to play an additional free game for winning an initial game is commonly known in the art area.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lamle (,146) and Friedman (,543) both teach Parlay bets.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1-30 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-30 of U. S. Patent No. 6179711 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: "playing second game of poker without placing a second wager"

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.
